

*The Human Experiences and Endeavors Curriculum
Competency, Learning Outcomes and Student Action Steps Humanities*

Competency:

TCU graduates will apply methods of humanistic inquiry and construct relevant arguments.

Learning Outcomes	Student Action Steps
Students will be able to analyze representative texts of significance and to practice critical analysis of work at the center of the humanities.	Students will explore texts in terms of multiple cultural heritages, aesthetic approaches, and/or ideological perspectives; Students will practice the problem-solving skills of critical reading and interpretation; Students will critically examine and appraise diverse ideas. Students will use analytical tools to write logically coherent, informed, and persuasive prose.
Students will demonstrate a critical ability to analyze questions about the nature and value of human life as embodied in the traditions of the humanities.	Students will identify, explore and evaluate representative products of human culture and human intellect to discern expressions about the nature and value of human life. Students will identify and compare the characteristics of human life reflected in the products of human culture. Students will articulate their analysis of the products of human culture in logically coherent, informed, and persuasive prose.

2/24/04

Approved by AddRan Faculty 2/19/04